

THE KING'S NUMEROLOGY™
Olympic Champions - Part 1
Shaun White, Dick Button, Peggy Fleming

=====

Shaun White

Brief: Shaun White is a global snowboarding and skateboarding icon and two-time Olympic Gold Medalist in the Halfpipe: 2006 in Torino (Italy) and 2010 in Vancouver (Canada). The red-haired wonder has dominated his sport for the last decade. As well as being a star, White has made himself a fortune with his prodigious talent and charismatic personality. NBC reported during the Olympics that White doesn't just want to win. He wants to dominate. Check out all the 2s, especially the 29s in his Expression, PE, Soul and Material Soul and the three 9s - domination, charisma, personal magnetism and connection with the public.

"Shaun White: Olympic Halfpipe Hero" is posted on King's Numerology Articles page and contains a more in-depth look at Shaun White's chart.

Dick Button

Brief: Dick Button is a phenom in the figure skating world. He is the youngest man to ever win Olympic Gold in figure skating at the 1948 Olympics at age 18, and the only man to repeat as Gold Medal Champion in back-to-back Olympics - 1948 and 1952. He won 5 consecutive World Championships from 1948 to 1952. He was the only American to win the European Championships in 1948. Button, who has a law degree from Harvard, has numerous other skating awards and of course has served as an expert figure-skating television commentator since 1962.

Peggy Fleming

Brief: United States figure skater, Peggy Fleming, won Olympic Gold in 1968 in Grenoble, France. She has served as a television commentator in her sport for decades. Her award in Grenoble was the only gold medal that the U.S. Olympic team won in the 1968 Winter Games.

In 1993, the Associated Press ranked her as the 3rd most popular athlete in America behind fellow Olympians Mary Lou Retton and Dorothy Hamill. Fleming's list of Hall of Fame placements, awards, United States, World and Olympic Championships is long and distinguished. What is most appealing is her spirit and persona. Her grace in life even excels her grace on ice. Peggy Fleming is a superstar for the ages.
