Richard Andrew King is available for speaking events on the Divine Science of Numbers and the part they play in establishing a framework for the blueprint of our destinies.

Life is not happenstance. It is by divine design. There is a Power – so Vast, so Intelligent, so Real – that it is beyond the comprehension of the human mind. It is a Power that transcends all religion, all human thought, all imagination that could ever be conceived. It is this Power that has created numbers and the science of Numerology – the numeric manifestation of the architectural design of life and destiny.

Richard Andrew King began his journey into the Divine Science of Numbers in 1980. As of 2020, he has published a twelve volume canon of the mysteries and secrets he has discovered through his research and study. These twelve volumes are the substance of The King's Book of Numerology™ Series.

Mr. King loves to share the truth of numerology with others of like mind. Through the science of numbers, we can know ourselves, our parents, children, relationships, our personal assets and liabilities, our strengths and weaknesses, our purpose in life, the role we are destined to fulfill in this incarnation and much more.
