TED BUNDY ~ SERIAL KILLER ~

AN ANIMAL. BORN TO KILL. TOTALLY CONSUMED WITH MURDER. These are phrases describing one of the most demonic serial killers, rapist and necrophiliacs of all time—Ted Bundy.

Bundy was an intelligent predator, not the kind of individual one would initially consider as a serial killer. He was good-looking, college educated, well dressed and well spoken. In other words, he wasn't what you would call a scary guy, visually at least.

Bundy's modus operandi (M.O.) was clever, smoothly disarming, even charming . . . and tricky. He would prey on his female victims by targeting their natural maternal instincts and sympathies. It was common for him to play the "Can you please help me?" persona. He would wear a fake shoulder harness or even put a fake cast on his arms or legs to promote the appearance of needing help. However, it was all a ploy to deceive his prey, which he did quite successfully, having murdered at least 30 young women in seven states between 1974 and 1978. (Wikipedia)

Eventually, Ted Bundy—serial killer, rapist and necrophiliac—was captured, imprisoned and put to death by electrocution.

At 7:06 a.m. local time on January 24, 1989, he was strapped into “Old Sparky,” the electric chair at Florida State Prison in Starke, Florida. His last words were, “I’d like you to give my love to my family and friends.” Two thousand volts then coursed through his body for less than two minutes. He was pronounced dead at 7:16 a.m.; at the confirmation of his execution several hundred people, gathered outside the prison, cheered. (Wikipedia)

What kind of numbers serve as the structural composition of such a wanton, evil and demonic predator? For numerologists that’s always the question. Let’s take a look.

BASIC MATRIX: NATAL NAME

BASIC MATRIX THEODORE ROBERT COWELL Born: 24 November 1946

LIFEPATH: 55-1v

The 55-1v Lifepath is problematic. The reason is that the 1 is rarely voided in a chart because the letters from which the 1 originates are the A, J and S. The only other single number of the Alpha-Numeric Spectrum that is also rarely voided is the 5, which is derived from the letters E, N and W. In fact, the 5 is the most used letter in English. Therefore, for it to be voided is extremely rare.

The attributes of the 1 are masculinity, yang, element of fire, self, ego, independence, action, leadership, initiation, being the boss, taking charge, standing alone, being a maverick, lone wolf and predator.

Therefore, Bundy's path in life, literally his life's path, was to experience these aforementioned attributes as the lessons, influences, subjects and themes of his life. The problem of Ted Bundy having a voided 1 (1v) in the Lifepath indicates that he will be confronted with the 1's attributes, especially those of his ego, personal power and masculinity. The King's Numerologytm assessment is that Ted Bundy's 1v Lifepath was at the core of his problems. Yes, there are other aspects of his nefarious actions but the 1v Lifepath is, arguably, the trunk of his predatory tree.

The 1v targets a man's masculinity, identity and power. When masculinity, identity and power are not dominate in a male, what can a male do but create actions and behaviors that make him feel masculine, strong and powerful. And who does he attack to give him a sense of strength? Females, of course. Women are governed by the number 2, which is not a predatory energy, as a general rule. Bundy never targeted men. All of his victims were females. Murdering women gave Bundy a sense of power, however flawed his sense of power was. Ted Bundy was a vile coward who preyed on those he knew he could slay.

What else did Bundy do to some of his female victims? He had sex with them—when they were dead! Bundy wasn't just a killer. He was a necrophiliac—an individual who has sex with a corpse. Here is more proof of his lack of power masquerading as dominance and power but radiating, as false as it was, a massive degree of male insecurity.

Did Bundy's sickness end with murdering and having sex with his prey? No. Sometimes he would cut off their heads or dismember them. Indeed, Ted Bundy, however pleasant he purported himself to be on the outside, was a vile and demonic being bent on murder. This is why, from a self-defense perspective, women should be ever vigilant of strangers, never allowing their sympathetic nature to completely rule their emotions, and certainly not be drawn to someone pleading for help. Women, when assailed upon for help, should always ask themselves first, "Is this a trap?"

Another problem with Bundy's 1v Lifepath is that its root is a master 55. The 1 is a fire sign; so is the 5. A 1v can originate from binaries 19, 28, 37, 46, 64, 73, 82 and 91. Any of these binary roots would have lessened Bundy's 1v because the 5 is sensuous and sexual, adventurous, versatile, mercurial, non-conforming and experiential. It craves stimulation and excitement. When multiplied 11 times, the 5 becomes the 55 master root, thus exploding the normal 5 and its energy and characteristics 11 times! Thus, the 55-1v energy is powerful. It can also be dangerous and Ted Bundy is its negative poster child.

EXPRESSION (Exp): 22-4

The 4 encompasses structure, order, organization, planning, development, work, service, systems. It is logical, traditional, methodical, mechanical, practical and conventional. It is focused on form, matter, design and routine. The master 22 root expands the general power of the 4 to a higher level of methodology.

Bundy was very methodical in murdering his victims. They were generally young women with brunette hair. His predatory process was quite constant. He would lure them into his demonic web in multiple ways, bludgeon them, rape them, strangle them. If such heinous acts were not enough, Bundy would have sex with their corpses and even decapitate them. There was, indeed, a method to his evil madness. Obviously, he was acting on the negative side of the 4 energy.

PERFORMANCE/EXPERIENCE (PE): 77v-5

The 5 represents freedom and detachment. It is non-traditional and non-conventional. It loves motion and movement, variety, sensuality, adventure, excitement, sex and the five senses.

One of the hallmarks of the 5 is that it needs constant stimulation. Otherwise, it gets bored. This need for continual stimulation was a driving force in Bundy's life. Although on the one hand he was structurally minded due to his 4 energy, on the other hand he was engaged in an endless hunt for prey in order to feed his rapacious need for excitement, adventure, variety, murder, rape and sex.

As his 4 Expression had a 22 master root, Bundy's 5 PE has a 77v master root, empowering the basic energies of the 5. Unlike the 22 of the 4, the 77 is void and therefore creates stability problems for the 5, as 7v often manifests as indiscretion and a lack of thought, analysis, examination, common sense. Multiplied 11 times, the 7v screams problems with one's judgment. This indicates indiscretion (77v) of the 5 PE energy.

Another problem is that the energies of the 4 and 5 are diametrically opposed, thus generating a tug-of-war. And since both the 4 and 5 have master roots, the battle between them would be challenging, to say the least. Furthermore, the 77v-5 is crazy dangerous. Bundy had to be mixed up in his head, and his life obviously reflected such turmoil.

SOUL: 44-8

The 44-8 is the “Generalship/CEO” energy of manipulation. It manifests as interaction, orchestration and engagement (8) of material, structural and organizational constructs (44). A 44-8 in the Soul says, “I want to be the boss, the general. This is my deepest desire.” This is why Bundy always wanted to take charge and why he chose to legally represent himself during his trial, foregoing having an actual lawyer. This was a grave mistake and resulted in him being executed rather than serving the rest of his life in prison—alive but jailed. Such a choice of representing himself is a pure example of the 77v-5 master energy. It was a massive and deadly choice and with a 55-1 Lifepath of arrogance to support his immense lack of judgment and bad decision making, Bundy doomed himself.

MATERIAL SOUL (MS): 99-9

Acting in concert with his 44-8 Soul, Bundy’s 99-9 Material Soul (MS) defined his most primal needs, wants, desires and motivations, not just as a powerful general but as a person who craved to be known on as big a global stage as possible. No two master numbers seek power and notoriety more than the 44-8 and 99-9 in tandem. In the Soul and Material Soul this pairing is as powerful a need and desire as there is. Talk about craving power! Bundy was a slave to and consumed by it. For him, power was a drooling thrill to kill, and rule.

NATURE: 5

Bundy’s 5 Nature resonates with his 5 PE, strengthening the energy of change, variety, adventure, excitement, freedom, sensuality and sexuality. He was, indeed, a free spirit but an evil one.

MATERIAL NATURE (MN): 33-6

The master number 33 is one of the main cues in Bundy’s sexual energies. The 3 references communication, words, art, children, sex, image and images, beauty, narcissism, partying, fun. It is also one of the most dangerous master numbers because it can send people beyond the threshold of a balanced life of pleasure to an imbalanced life of sexual indulgence, even death. Since the 3 energy is about fun and pleasure, many individuals, especially in the entertainment and music businesses, have fallen prey to the excesses of fun and partying. Many have done so at the expense of their lives.

BUNDY'S BASIC MATRIX NOTES

Since the 3 expresses sex, eleven times its energy is quite powerful. It was this 33-6 energy that greatly motivated Bundy to have sex with his victims, either by raping them when alive or having sex with their dead bodies, as sick as such behavior is.

Ted Bundy's natal Basic Matrix (Theodore Robert Cowell) is powerful, to be sure. Of the seven components in Bundy's Basic Matrix, six are master numbers: 55-1v Lifepath, 22-4 Expression, 77v-5 PE, 44-8 Soul, 99-9 Material Soul and 33-6 Material Nature. There's no question that Ted Bundy was a dynamic predator. There is also no question that Bundy was power-hungry (44-8 & 99-9), insecure as a man (55-1v), structured in his thinking and planning (22-4), sexually motivated (33-6) and lacking in judgement (77v-5). He was smart but not that smart because his lust for flesh and the "kill" got him killed in the end. The electric chair was a karmically appropriate summation to his demonic existence.

NAMES TIMELINES

Theodore: 9/(1v)/1v & 45/(10v)/55-1v & 9/(55-1v)/1v

Bundy's first name of Theodore was a major numeric aspect to his troubled life. First of all, the Expression of Theodore is a 9 with a General root of 45 and a Specific root of 90. When the single cipher 9 filters through his 1v Lifepath, the outcome is a 9/(1v)/1v IR Set. As we know, the 9 in numerology represents universal power. When that power merges with the egocentric 1v, the outcome is a more powerful 1v. Arguably, there is no IR Set more self-centered and arrogant than the 9/(1v)/1v. Power and ego, and no less voided, is massively egocentric . . . and dangerous. Bundy's life proves this.

Second of all, when the 45 General root of Theodore filters through the 10 Transition root of his Lifepath, the outcome IR Set is another 45/(10v)/55-1v IR Set. All of this 1v energy helped increase Bundy's arrogant insecurity.

Thirdly, when the 9 passes through the 55-1v Lifepath the result is a 9/(55-1v)/1v. Whatever the configuration, it's clear that the 9, 55 and 1v energies all combine to generate an energy pattern of power and dominance (9), freedom and sensuality (55) and ego (1v).

Bundy died at age 42. The Timeline of Theodore is 45, so Bundy's demonic rampage occurred only within the energy field of Theodore.

Robert: 33-6/(55-1v)/88-16-7

Bundy's middle name of Robert was from age 46 through 78. Obviously, he never entered this energy pattern but it still had power because when the name Robert is spoken, the energy becomes active with its IR Set of 33-6/(55-1v)/88-16-7. Ouch! Not good, at all. Word strings for this IR Set could be sexuality/(sensuality)/darkness or sex/(ego)/turmoil. These resonate perfectly with his sexual predatory behavior.

Cowell: 7v/(55-1v)/8

The Name Timeline for Cowell would have been active from age 79 through 103 had Bundy lived. Its IR Set would have been 7v/(55-1v)/8—an IR Set housing both his voids of 1v and 7v. A word string for this set could be indiscretion/(ego)/engagement.

Ted Bundy's natal Life Matrix is not unusual. However, there are three components that attract interest. Those three items are his 1st Epoch, Grand Pinnacle and Crown Pinnacle.

Bundy's 1st Epoch is a 6/(4)/1v. This tells us that from birth through age 27, his life would be involved with issues of the home (6), security and structure (4) and himself or some type of male energy, most likely the father or lack thereof (1v). In fact, Bundy's early life was riddled with family issues. Plus, Bundy had no father. There was a sperm donor by way of his mother's sexual liaison with someone she couldn't identify, but no daily dad. Bundy's mom eventually married and her husband legally adopted Ted when he was fifteen years old. However, Ted kept his distance from his stepfather.

The fact of having no real father or father problems is not unusual for someone with a 1v. Basically, one of the common 1v aspects in the 1st Epoch, is that the father is absent or non-existent. This can be in the chart of a male or female child.

Bundy’s Grand Pinnacle—the core of his 1v Lifepath—is a 66-3/(4)/7v. Like the 33-6, the 66-3 is highly sexual. The problem, though, is that the 7 is voided (7v), which casts a direct, negative, and dark aspect on the 66-3 and its sexual activity. This would have played a role in Bundy’s demented sexual behavior in his raping of women and having sex with their deceased bodies. His thought processes were unhealthy (7v), to say the least.

The 44-8/(4)/3 IR Set in Bundy’s natal Crown Pinnacle involves managerial power (44-8) focusing on the 3 energy and its pleasure, sex, fun, etc. This is not a dangerous IR Set. It’s quite common, but in the whole composite life of Ted Bundy it does play a noticeable role.

What is of note is the manipulative aspect of the 8. Is a master killer not also a master manipulator? Furthermore, Bundy’s Life Matrix reveals life linkage from birth to death of the 8 energy: 1st Pinnacle, 1st Challenge, 2nd Pinnacle, Grand Challenge, Crown Challenge and Crown Pinnacle.

BASIC MATRIX: LEGALLY ADOPTED NAME

BASIC MATRIX (Legally Adopted Name) THEODORE ROBERT BUNDY Born: 24 November 1946

Transit	10	18	10-19	n/a	n/a	11	12

Ted Bundy’s Basic Matrix and Life Matrix of his legally adopted name—Theodore Robert Bundy—shed more light on his demented sexual behavior.

Notice the 99-9 Expression in the “Bundy” Expression. This empowers him and gives him a sense of dominance. No number, binary or master, is more powerful and domineering than the 99-9. We see this often in the charts of people who are universally known, whether a good guy or a bad guy.

Notice, too, that this master 99-9 Expression in the “Bundy” name resonates perfectly with the 99-9 in the Material Soul of his “Cowell” name. It’s one thing to have a desire to be powerful (his Cowell Material Soul) and quite another to have it in his Expression (his Bundy name). The former is a wishful desire; the latter is an actuality of action. After all, it was “Bundy” who was known as the serial killer, not Cowell. My-o-my! What a legal name change can do to a person! This is why people who are considering a legal name change should do their homework thoroughly before making a definite transition. If not, one may well be going from the frying pan into the fire . . . of hell.

Another major issue is that the “Bundy” name manifests a 1v Performance/Experience which matches his 1v Lifepath! This generates more energy of insecurity and “challenged manhood.” The King’s Numerology™ has never seen a 1v in both the Lifepath and PE of any individual. To have one 1v component in the Umbrella is extremely rare but to have two is completely extraordinary and should raise red, not yellow, flags of inquiry.

And consider this: the combination of multiple 1v energies in concert with multiple 99-9 energies in dual names (“Bundy” & “Cowell”) is staggering and screams Power and Ego.

Another interesting note is that the “Cowell” name reveals a 44-8 Soul and the “Bundy” name affirms a 44-8 Material Soul! Bundy’s desire for management and engagement were deeply anchored in his needs, wants, desires and motivations.

It doesn’t stop there. The “Cowell” name contains a 33-6 Material Nature while the “Bundy” name contains a 66-3 Material Nature! The 33-6 and 66-3 are mirrored siblings of sex, image and communication. This gave Bundy the ability to communicate with his victims in a nurturing manner so they trusted him, sadly before he raped and killed them. Bundy was smooth and disarming—the proverbial wolf in sheep’s clothing, just like Bernie Madoff. Bundy took their lives; Madoff took their life savings.

This brings up a critical point of human relationships. Just because someone seems kind and loving does not mean they are not dangerous. It could mean just the opposite, as the demented lives of Ted Bundy and Bernie Madoff have proven. One must be ever vigilant and aware of people being too kind and helpful. Wolves are clever and tricky after all.

A numerology note: as the Basic Matrices of Ted Cowell and Ted Bundy have shown, it can be very revealing to analyze a person having dual names, especially legally changed names, in order to set up two different Basic Matrices and see what each reveals.

LIFE MATRIX: THEODORE ROBERT BUNDY

The Life Matrix of Theodore Robert Bundy is powerful and natural, actually. It reveals no 1v IR Set or 7v IR Set in any component, i.e., no dark energies. However, what is of note is the 99-9 Filter occupying every Life Matrix component. This tells us that changing his name from “Cowell” to “Bundy” had a dramatic effect and boost to his power and dominance. By itself, it is not troublesome but combined with all that we’ve seen in his numbers, it is.

HOUSE OF LETTERS (Specific Inclusion)

One last thing. The Specific Inclusion (listing of all the letters in the full Expression) of Theodore Robert Cowell contains no master numbers. However, the Specific Inclusion, aka, House of Letters, of Theodore Robert Bundy reveals a 44 in the 2nd House. This is important because the 2nd House of Letters represents females, others, relationships, opposition, division, conflict. This 44 in the 2nd House compounds Bundy's obsession with female energy and his control and engagement with them.
